Data protection guidelines. May 2018

The Government has introduced New Data Protection regulations in May 2018. As a result we need to inform members how their membership information, provided on this form, will be used and stored and to seek their permission for this use.

1. Your information will be kept securely in locked storage for paper forms and in a passworded file on computer as part of the membership secretary's data.
2. Your data will be made available in passworded form to the committee and to club members responsible for distributing BIN and the monthly Bulletin as appropriate.
3. Your details will only used to communicate with you on matters relevant to the operation and interests of the Northumberland and Tyneside Bird Club.
4. Your data will not be disclosed to any third party, including other NTBC members, without first contacting you for your permission.
5. Your email address will be used to share information about NTBC activities and events. Group emails will be sent BCC which means that your email address will not be accessible to others from these emails.
6. Members may withdraw their permission to store their data at any time by email or on paper. However this action could compromise NTBC's ability to deliver basic club services.
